

HERO'S JOURNEY FOCUS DAY

instructions.

You are hiking in the forest when you stumble upon a well. Your curiosity gets the best of you and you decide to look inside the well. The water inside the well is a bright Cyan color, but before you can finish examining the water, you fall inside the well. You have landed in the water, but when you stand up, you start falling again. You get sent through the other side of the well. To your right, there is a medieval castle. You've never seen or been inside a medieval castle in person before, so of course you go inside. Luckily the kitchen door is open. No one is in the kitchen. How strange! In fact, there are no people inside the castle at all. That is what you think before you see a king sitting on his throne and the castle's inhabitants standing beside him. Before you can introduce yourself, the king starts speaking. "I have a quest to propose to you," he says "On this day 17 years ago, my daughter was kidnapped by a witch. I have hired Knights and adventures from around the kingdom to help me save my daughter. All of them have failed me. So I summoned you from Merlin's well. You will go on a quest to save my daughter. If you decline the offer, you will be sent to the gallows. My guards will escort you to choose your party member"

You sigh, "Well I guess I have no choice"
